

POTOMAC CONFERENCE BACKPACKING TRIP

October 11-13, 2019

INFORMATION

- When: October 11 – 13, 2019
What: 8-mile overnight backpack trip
Where: Appalachian Trail in Maryland
Who: Potomac Pathfinders (Explorers and up)
Cost: $25 per person

This trip is designed for first-time backpackers and Pathfinders will experience trail life on a relatively easy section of trail that rewards hikers with two overlooks with amazing views.

We will meet Friday evening at Washington Monument State Park and camp there overnight. Sabbath morning we will hike 7 miles north along the Appalachian Trail, past Annapolis Rocks and Black Rock, camping for the evening at the Pogo Memorial Campsite. Sunday morning, we'll hike 1-mile down the Thurston Griggs Trail to complete the trip.

Pathfinders are responsible for their own gear and food for the weekend. Clubs should provide transportation and supervision (standard 1:6 ratio) for the trip. Each participant will receive an Outdoor Experience t-shirt and a special patch to wear on their sash.
